I am an artist living in Watford, Hertfordshire, with a large range of big, bold, colourful paintings for sale. My work is on display in many private collections in the UK as well as in Spain and Switzerland.

My work is quite often textured with polyfilla, paper or garden fleece. I love painting on rough, unpredictable surfaces using lots of acrylic paint, often pure colour and mixing it on the canvas with interesting and random results.

Paintings on canvas are box framed and need no other framing. Paintings on paper are mounted and framed, but can be supplied unframed if required.

Subjects for paintings are varied and include landscape, seascape, flowers, leaves, berries, still life and portraits. Commissions are welcome.

I run small art groups (maximum of 6) from my studio and the informal sessions include tuition and home made cakes!

I hope you enjoy looking at my work and if you want any more information please contact me.
