

Bereavement Support Group

Award Ceremony

Our Bereavement Support Group (BSG) is to receive the Queen's Award for Voluntary Services on Sunday 5th September, at a special ceremony at the synagogue, from 3pm to 5pm.

The award is to be made by the Queen's representative Wing Commander Ed Partridge, Deputy Lieutenant of Greater London in the presence of the mayor of Hillingdon Cllr David Yarrow, and Nick Hurd, who is both MP for Ruislip, Northwood & Pinner and the Minister for Civil Liberty.

The ceremony will be followed by tea and refreshments in the Osorio Hall.

All synagogue members are welcome and we have invited many interfaith and civic leaders of local communities, others who have been connected with the work of our BSG over the 17 years since its foundation and members of the press.

This prestigious event marks the great honour bestowed on our synagogue and recognises the unique nature of the care provided by us to those in need.

Please do join us.

